

Maybank Cambodia opens 7th branch

2010/01/05

MAYBANK Cambodia has added a seventh branch to its network, located at Toul Kork District in Phnom Penh.

The new branch will provide retail and commercial banking services, namely deposit and placement, trade finance, remittances, foreign exchange and mortgage as well as an automated teller machine.

"This latest branch completes the four new branches we planned to open this year," said Maybank Group head for international, Abdul Farid Alias in a statement yesterday.

He said the group targets Maybank Toul Kork to turn around in the second year of operation and will meet the banking needs of the community in the vicinity, focusing on the commercial and retail sectors.
